Old green lane - Walden Road

The Yorkshire Dales Public Transport Users Group, of which DalesBus Ramblers is a part, has campaigned for more than ten years to safeguard DalesBus - the greener way to enjoy the Yorkshire Dales.

We provide a programme of guided walks with experienced leaders to increase the use of and to promote the DalesBus network. See the full DalesBus walks programme at www.dalesbus.org

Faced with losing most DalesBus services in 2007, we worked with the Yorkshire Dales Society to set up the Dales & Bowland Community Interest Company which now manages most Sunday and Bank Holiday DalesBus services. But for YDPTUG's hard work, much of the Dales might now be inaccessible on Sundays without a car.

I'd like to invite you to support our work, and join the YDPTUG for a mere £6 per year (£10 per household). You'll get a regular newsletter, the latest timetables and information posted to your home, free guided walks, and knowledge that you are helping to support one of the best integrated public transport networks in any UK National Park or Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

To join us send your name and address, together with a cheque or postal order payable to YDPTUG to:

ESCAPE TO THE DALES – THE DALESBUS WAY

You don't need a car to discover the Yorkshire Dales. Help the environment by causing less global warming, congestion and pollution when using the popular DalesBus services. There's nothing to beat a good day's hike in the open air to improve fitness and cure stress.

Catching the bus

It's so easy. Get yourself to your nearest Bus Station or DalesBus stop (give a clear signal to the driver), buy your ticket on the bus showing proof of age or student status if you want a discounted ticket (no need to book in advance), and the Dales are yours for the day - or even a full weekend.

Tickets and Times

An All Dales Rover ticket for £10 covers all DalesBus services for the day, a Southern Dales Rover at £7.50 takes you as far as Buckden, Malham or Middlesmoor, but if you are a student or young person, you can buy a special Student DalesBus 800 Rover £5 ticket valid on all Sunday/Bank Holiday DalesBus services numbered with an "8" in front (800, 820 etc.). Dales Rover tickets described here are only available on Sundays & Bank Holidays. If you have a MetroCard or Student MetroCard you can even travel free on services from/to the Metro area! Up to two children can travel free with any adult - but only on these Dalesbus services. Seniors with an All-England Concession Pass can travel free on all services. See the full map of routes you can use overleaf.

For detailed bus times and list of places to catch your DalesBus pick up a Metro DalesBus timetable booklet at any travel or information centre in West Yorkshire, Harrogate or Skipton or visit www.dalesbus.org

Traveline provides public transport timetable information. You can phone Traveline from anywhere in Britain on 0871 200 22 33 at National call-rate charges or log on www.traveline.info

Going for a walk?

Every Sunday and Bank Holiday throughout the year DalesBus Ramblers organise a programme of great public walks, varying from around 3 to 12 miles in length - all free of charge. If you prefer to walk on your own or with friends, DalesBus offers a magnificent choice of linear walks, along the Dales, or for the really adventurous, hike across a choice of ancient green tracks across the hills to the next valley where, with a little planning you can find another DalesBus (on which you can use your Rover ticket) or even a train service to bring you home - perhaps after a welcoming pint or afternoon tea in a Dales inn.
